

PUBLIC ISSUES

JUDY SENTENEY

Marsha Price

One member actively participated in the Billings League of Women Voters. She registered voters for the 11/18 election and assisted in voter education activities.

GFWC Legislative Action Center – club members are informed on current national issues and legislation the monthly committee reports (GFWC tracks and promotes issues that are relevant to the mission and scope of member interests, and this is passed on to local members.)

Ballot Information – ballot measures that are important to members, women, and children are reported

Reminder to vote on Election Day – encourage members to vote

Billings League of Women Voters – The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization encouraging informed and active participation in government. It influences public policy through education and advocacy – chairwoman attends meetings, learning about community issues that impact our citizens.

Veterans – each year the veterans at Independence Hall receive a tray of cookies. Other items have been donated such as a bulletin board.

Community Concerns – members are involved in a variety of issues that affect the community and its citizens.